

Thames Valley and Surrey Community Renewable Energy Conference 2005

28th September, Council Chamber, South
Oxfordshire District Council Offices,
Crowmarsh Gifford, Wallingford

Programme

9.00 - 9.30	Registration
9.30 - 9.40	Welcome & introduction to the conference	Patrick Greene, Chairman, South Oxfordshire District Council
Session 1: The Thames Valley – a Regional Success Story
9.40 – 10.00	Renewables in the Thames Valley Region: Building on Success	Keith Richards, Managing Director, TV Energy
10.00- 10.20	Renewable Schools – A Case Study of Brill Primary School	Chris Hirst, Headteacher, Brill Primary School, Buckinghamshire
10.20- 10.40	Hydropower, Back to the Future? – A case study of Sonning Mill, Oxfordshire	Olly Paish, Derwent Hydropower (tbc)
10.40- 11.00	Beauty and the Beast – PV on public buildings featuring Buckinghamshire County Offices	Amolak Hunjan – PV Systems
11.00-11.30 Tea & Coffee
Session 2: The Thames Valley - Ensuring Continued Success (to be chaired by Royce Longton, Chairman, TV Energy)
11.30- 11.50	Best practice in Planning for Renewable Energy – The Approach in Surrey	Paul Sanderson, Planning Officer, Surrey County Council
11.50 - 12.10	Tackling the New Housing – EcoHomes, a holistic sustainability approach	Ian Bacon, Built Environment Advisor, TV Energy
12.10 - 12.30	A Renewable Vision – The Cressex Gateway, High Wycombe	Michael Beech, TV Energy
12.30 – 12.45	Question & Answer session
12.45-2.15 Lunch & Exhibition & Tour of Environment Agency's new, sustainable and beyond best practice office, featuring renewable energy installations
Session 3: Woodfuel, the Thames Valley's Strongest Suit?
2.15 - 2.20	Introduction to the afternoon session	Chair: Barry Deller, Director, ACTVaR
2.20 – 2.40	Local Renewable Energy Actions - How to implement the European experience	Julije Domac, Hrvoje Pozar, Energy Institute, Zagreb & Vilim Magdic, Karlovac County, Croatia
2.40 - 3.00	Keeping Warm With Wood – Buckinghamshire leading the way	Charlotte Bruton, TV Energy
3.00 - 3.20	Seeing the Wood from the Trees – the case for short rotation coppice willow in the Thames Valley	Gillian Alker – TV Energy
3.20 - 3.55	Discussion and debate on the way forward for of renewable energy within the Thames Valley region:
3.55-4.00	Concluding Remarks and Close	Chair: Barry Deller