

Thames Valley Sustainable Energy Conference 2008

Wednesday, 10th September, 2008

The Old Library, Oxford Town Hall, St. Aldates, Oxford

9.30 - 9.45	Registration
9.45 - 9.50	Welcome & introduction
Session 1: Chair: Royce Longton, Chairman, TV Energy
9.50 – 10.15	Renewables in the Thames Valley and the SE Region: Building on Success	Keith Richards, Managing Director, TV Energy
10.15 - 10.35	Large-scale Utility Companies and their role in Sustainable Energy	Andy Lamb, Scottish and Southern Energy
10.35 - 10.55	Reducing Fleet Emissions	Islington Borough Council (tbc)
10.55 – 11.15	Question & Answer session
11.15-11.45	Tea & Coffee
Session 2: Good Practice – Thames valley and Beyond Chair: Barry Deller, ACTVaR
11.45- 12.10	Learning From Others – Initiatives from Kirklees Borough Council	Cllr. Andrew Cooper, Kirklees Borough Council
12.10 - 12.35	Small-scale biomass boilers – Lessons Learnt form Curridge Primary School	Anthony Whitton, TV Energy & Michael Beech, RPS
12.35 – 13.00	Question & Answer session
13.00-14.00	Lunch & Exhibition
Session 3: The Vital Role of Planning Chair: David Payne, SEERA
14.00 – 14.10	Setting the scene for the South-East	Chair: David Payne, SEERA
14.10 – 14.35	Improving the Energy Performance of Existing Homes Through the Planning Process – The Case of Uttlesford District Council	Jake Roos, Uttlesford District Council
14.35 – 14.55	The Emerging Role of BREEAM Standards for Improved Sustainability in Buildings in the Thames Valley	Ian Bacon, TV Energy
14.55 – 15.20	Balance Trading – A New Tool?	Prof. Mike Gibson, SECBE
15.20 – 15.40	Question & Answer session
15.40-15.45	Concluding Remarks and Close	